

Developing Athletic Abilities Pre-workshop online session

Your training in the Developing Athletic Abilities workshop involves two sessions:

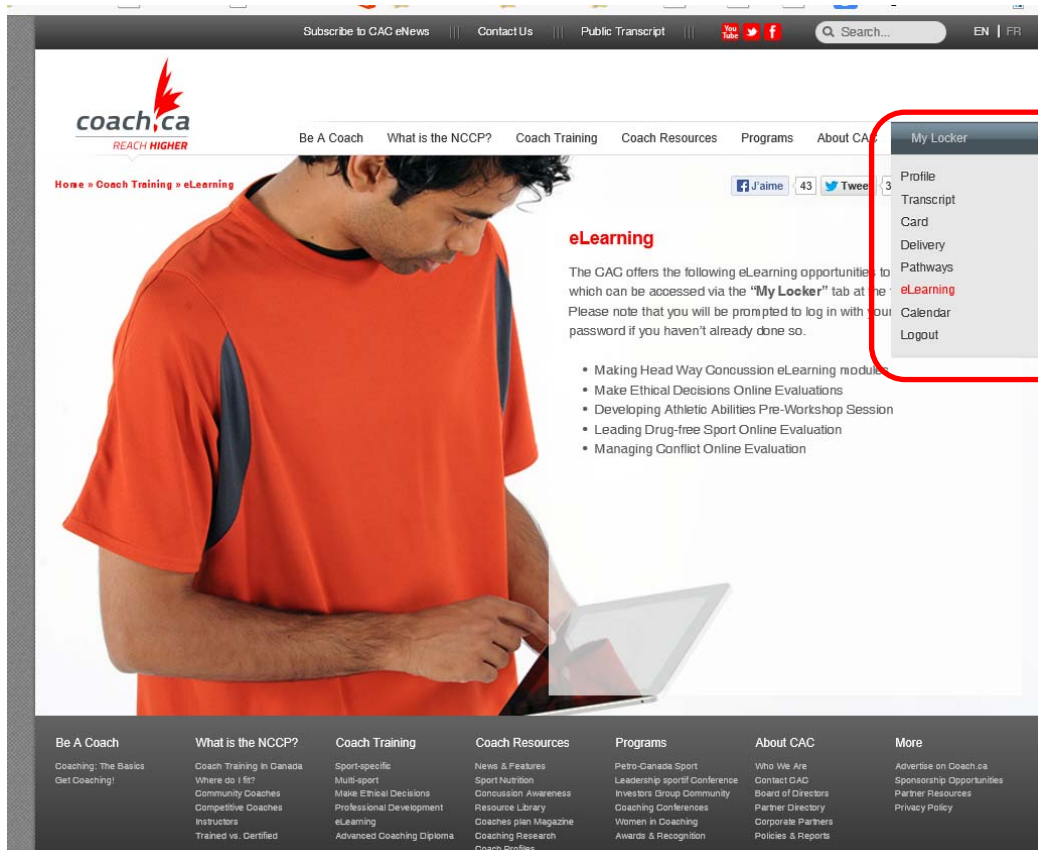

- A pre-workshop online session,
- An in-class workshop.

Before you participate in the in-class workshop, you must complete the tasks in the pre-workshop online session and bring the completed tasks to the workshop.

Enrolling in the Pre-workshop Online Session

Before you begin your Developing Athletic Abilities pre-workshop online session, make sure that you all the necessary information.

- You need to have a CC number and an active account (password) with at the Coaching Association of Canada's database.
If your account is not active, you must contact the database by email at: coach@coach.ca or by phone at: (866) 414-2622 (toll free) and ask them to activate your account (take notice that it can take a few days to get a reply by email).
- If you already have an active account, click on this link eLearning and follow the instructions to start the pre-workshop.
- Read carefully the instructions, especially about saving and printing the document so you can bring it with you on Saturday morning.

The screenshot shows the website coach.ca with the 'eLearning' section highlighted. A red box highlights the 'My Locker' dropdown menu, which contains the following items: Profile, Transcript, Card, Delivery, Pathways, eLearning, Calendar, and Logout. The 'eLearning' section lists several opportunities, including 'Developing Athletic Abilities Pre-Workshop Session'.